ALL-CIRCLES PEOPLE'S DELEGATES ASSEMBLY
DEFINES REGULATIONS GOVERNING ORGANIZATION

Pei-p'ing, 21 November (NCNA) -- On 20 November 1949, the second All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly unanimously passed the organizational regulations for the Second All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly of Pei-p'ing which follow:

Article 1

The Pei-p'ing All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly shall be called into session by the Pei-p'ing Military Control Commission of the People's Liberation Army (henceforth referred to as the Military Control Commission) and the Pei-p'ing Municipal People's Government (henceforth referred to as the Municipal government).

The Second All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly of Pei-p'ing, in accordance with the resolutions of the China People's Political Consultative Conference, which have been approved by the Central People's government, shall have rights to exercise the powers of the People's Delegates Assembly, prior to the calling of the general election of the Pei-p'ing People's Delegation Assembly.

Article 2

The participating units and the number of delegates of the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly are to be determined by the Military Control Commission, the Municipal government, and the Consultative Council of the Pei-p'ing First-All Circles People's Delegates Assembly.

The Military Control Commission shall be represented by its chairman and general secretary. The Municipal government shall be represented by the mayor, vice-mayor, general secretary, and heads of the various municipal government bureaus and the chief justice of the city of Pei-p'ing. The various parties, civilian organizations, and agencies and military units temporarily stationed in Pei-p'ing will be authorized to send delegates.

Other delegates shall be selected by the Military Control Commission, the Municipal government, and the Consultative Council of the Pei-p'ing First All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly, and shall be invited by the Military Control Commission and the Municipal government to attend the assembly.

The tenure of office of the delegates of the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly shall be temporarily set at one year. A delegate may be reelected. The delegates of the various agencies and military units temporarily stationed in Pei-p'ing who are elected by this consultative council, and delegates invited by the Military Control Commission, the Municipal government, and the Consultative Council may be replaced at any time.

Article 3

The duties of the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly shall be as follows:

1. To decide on the administrative plans and policies of the Municipal government.
2. To investigate and approve the budget of the Municipal government.
3. To investigate and pass on the reports of the Municipal government.
4. To advise and approve of the activities planned by the Municipal government.
5. To select the mayor, deputy mayor, and the council members of the Municipal People's government, and to organize the Council of the Pei-p'ing People's government.

Article 4

The members of the Presidium of the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly shall be elected by the plenary assembly. The Presidium shall elect a certain number of permanent members who will be responsible for convening the conference and performing the routine functions of the Presidium.

The Presidium shall request the plenary assembly to appoint one general secretary and a certain number of assistant secretaries whose appointments must be approved by the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly. Under the general secretary and deputy secretaries shall be established a secretariat which will be in charge of the routine affairs of the Assembly.

The All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly shall establish a committee to investigate proposals submitted by members and other committees.

Article 5

At the close of the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly, a Consultative Council of the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly (henceforth referred to as the Consultative Council) shall be established. This council shall be made up of one chairman, several deputy chairmen and members to be chosen by the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly. The duties of this council shall be as follows:

1. Carry out the proposals adopted by the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly.

2. Plan the activities of the Municipal government.
3. Aid the Municipal government in mobilizing the citizens to support and assist the front-line troops, to guard against counterrevolutionary activities and to participate in reconstruction work.
4. Assume responsibility for making preparations for the convening of the third All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly.
5. Assume responsibility for promoting mass support of the war of liberation.

Article 6

The Chairman shall be responsible for convening and conducting the conferences of the Consultative Council. The Consultative Council shall select one general secretary, a certain number of assistant secretaries to aid the chairman and deputy chairman in the performance of their duties; additional committees may be established by the Consultative Council if necessary. Delegates of the Consultative Council and the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly may participate in the activities of the various committees. The Consultative Council shall select chairmen for the various committees, who will be responsible for the activities of the committees.

Article 7

The All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly shall convene once every 3 months and the date of the meetings shall be determined by the Consultative Council. The meetings may be convened at an earlier or a later date if it is so determined by a two-thirds vote of the Municipal Government Council or the All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly, or if it is recognized as being necessary by the Consultative Council.

The Consultative Council shall convene once every month but when necessary the meeting may be called at an earlier or a later date.

Article 8

These organizational regulations shall become effective after they have been approved by the Pei-p'ing All-Circles People's Delegates Assembly.
